

Songwriter's Showcase

This Month:

Alice Howe

Alice Howe is a warm and engaging performer becoming known for her soulful, impeccably-tuned vocals and brilliantly crafted songs. She has been marked as one to watch since the release of her 2017 EP You've Been Away So Long. The record debuted on the Folk Radio Charts with a #1 Most Played song, "Homeland Blues," firmly establishing her as a rising star. In 2019, Alice released Visions, a modern love letter to 60s and 70s folk and timeless blues, garnering critical acclaim from gatekeepers such as Billboard and smitten local press alike. Alice has just completed her forthcoming album, recorded at iconic FAME Studios in Muscle Shoals, AL, working with Freebo as her producer, arranger, and co-writer. The album, due out in Fall 2022, features ten new original songs backed by a world-class band.
